

Appendix 4. Lesser prairie-chicken lek suitability agreement between models including and excluding state as a categorical variable, including agreement between a) the minimum training presence threshold, b) the five percentile threshold, and c) the ten percentile threshold. The 'maybe suitable' category indicates locations where one model classified a location as suitable while the other classified it as unsuitable.

