

Figure A1.3. Distribution of five NLCD land cover classes and the composite human land use index calculated within a 1 km buffer around each point count location surveyed within each site in the upland coastal zone of the North American Great Lakes. Values represent mean proportion land cover by Great Lake (Superior, Michigan, Huron, Ontario, Erie).

